

Old Rubric Score	Old Rubric Explanation	New Rubric Score	New Rubric Explanation
4	You are ready to present the problem assigned to you. Your solution was completely, or mostly, correct with only a few insignificant errors.	4	NA
3	You were not ready to present the problem assigned to you but volunteered to present a different problem not already assigned and your solution was completely, or mostly, correct with only a few errors.	3	You are willing to present the problem assigned to you. Either: a) You have made a lot of progress and have tried multiple ideas/ways along the way to solve the problem. You make sense of the bigger picture and the ideas that the problem requires you to think about. You are either stuck or your solution contains an interesting gap or mistake. Or: b) Your solution is correct and you make sense of the bigger picture and the ideas that the problem requires you to think about.
2	You presented a partial solution that was mostly correct and you clearly indicated where you were stuck.	2	You are willing to present the problem assigned to you. You have made some progress and have tried multiple ideas/ways along the way to solve the problem. You do not yet make sense of the bigger picture and the ideas that the problem requires you to think about. You are stuck or gave up.
1	You presented a partial solution with significant errors, but did not get very far and it was not clear why you got stuck.	1	You are willing to present the problem assigned to you. You have made some progress but have only tried a few ideas/ways to solve the problem. You do not yet make sense of the bigger picture and the ideas that the problem requires you to think about. You are stuck or gave up.
0	You were not able to pass on presenting a problem and were not able to present any partial solutions.	0	You were not prepared at all or not willing to present the problem assigned to you.